Muktinath Helicopter Tour

Standard Iterinary

Day 01: Kathmandu

Arrival in Kathmandu

Upon your arrival in Kathmandu at an elevation of 1350 meters (4428 feet), you will be warmly greeted by a representative from Himalayan Nepal Trek. After clearing customs and collecting your luggage, you will be transferred to your hotel. You will be on a Bed and Breakfast (BB) plan, allowing you to settle in and relax after your journey.

Day 02: Muktinath - Kathmandu

Charter Helicopter to Muktinath, Complete the ceremony, and fly back to Kathmandu.

Your day begins with an early breakfast at your hotel in Kathmandu. Afterward, you'll be transferred to the domestic airport for a remarkable journey. You will embark on a one-hour helicopter flight to Muktinath, a destination of immense spiritual significance. Upon landing, a short ascending walk will lead you to the Muktinath Temple, where the serene ambiance is filled with devotion. The temple complex is renowned for the 108 waterspouts, known as "Muktidhara," where pilgrims take a holy bath. It is believed that this ritual purifies the soul and leads to salvation.

Adjacent to the temple, there are two sacred ponds known as "Mukti Kunda," where Hindu devotees take a dip under the chilled water, believing that it brings them spiritual liberation. You'll have the opportunity to offer prayers, perform worship rituals, and seek blessings at Muktinath Temple.

After your spiritual sojourn, you'll return to Ranipauwa, where the helicopter awaits. You'll then board the helicopter for a scenic flight back to Kathmandu. Upon arrival, you'll be transferred to your hotel, where you can relax and engage in leisure activities. You'll spend the night at the hotel.

Day 03: Kathmandu

Sightseeing in Kathmandu Valley

Your third day in Kathmandu begins with a hearty breakfast. Following breakfast, you will embark on an enriching sightseeing tour of Kathmandu city, accompanied by an English-speaking guide. If you prefer, we can arrange a guide proficient in your language.

During the sightseeing tour, you will immerse yourself in the vibrant culture, rich heritage, and local life of Kathmandu. The tour will include visits to several iconic sites, including:

Pashupatinath Temple: A revered Hindu temple complex dedicated to Lord Shiva, situated on the banks of the Bagmati River.

Jaal Narayan (Budhanilkantha): Home to a remarkable reclining statue of Lord Vishnu, also known as Budhanilkantha, this site is a marvel of ancient artistry.

Swayambhunath (Monkey Temple): A UNESCO World Heritage Site, this stupa is a symbol of peace and harmony and offers panoramic views of the Kathmandu Valley.

Kathmandu Durbar Square: A historic palace complex showcasing intricate architecture, ancient temples, and the living heritage of the Kathmandu Valley.

Day 04: Departure

On your final day in Kathmandu, you will enjoy breakfast at your hotel before bidding farewell to this enchanting city. You will be transferred to Tribhuvan International Airport for your onward journey or departure to your next destination. Your unforgettable Muktinath pilgrimage and exploration of Kathmandu's cultural treasures will leave you with cherished memories and a deeper appreciation for Nepal's rich heritage.
